The inevitable cornerstone of Mother & Child at Dorothy Circus Gallery is the role of the Woman and the mother in contemporary society, as well as the legacy of feminist intellectuals, activists and writers. The evocative collection of hyper-contemporary artworks, created by more than 30 of the gallery's most famous and coveted international artists, including Audrey Kawasaki, Jade Rivera, Koh Kisung, Matthew Grabelsky and TvBoy, offers an opportunity to explore the theme of motherhood in its deepest sense through the latest philosophical and sociological trends.
